

Stuff the gum

Have plenty of bubble gum on hand (you can also use marshmallows). Submit these questions to the groom-to-be prior to the party. Have the bride-to-be answer these questions while sitting in front of party guests and each one she gets wrong, she has to put a piece of gum in her mouth.

The answers may not be right...but she has to match the soon-to-be-hubby's answers. By the end, she'll be bumbling her answers and guests will be rolling!

Where exactly did you two meet?

Who initiated the "dating" and when?

What was her first job?

What is his mom's maiden name?

How many bros/sisters does her father have?

What is his favorite food?

Where was your first vacation destination and with who?

If you could go anywhere, where would it be?

How many children do you want?

What was her first pet's name?

Who did she go to her junior prom with?

What was the first thing you noticed about your hubby?

What was his first major in college?

Who is her favorite actor?                      Actress?

What was his first car?

Who is her favorite NHL (or NFL or MLB) team?

What is his favorite thing to do in your spare time?

What's her favorite movie?